

MRS. WOODEND ON WITNESS STAND

Wife of the Head of the Collapsed Firm Finally Appears in Court to Explain Financial Transactions.

SAYS SHE TORE UP ALL HER OLD CHECK BOOKS.

Then She Explains that the Money She Received from Her Husband Was Cash Paid on Loan to Him.

Jennie Louise Woodend, wife of Dr. William E. Woodend, took the witness stand before United States Commissioner Hitchcock, this afternoon, for examination in the involuntary bankruptcy proceedings brought by the collapsed firm of W. E. Woodend & Co.

Mrs. Woodend was accompanied to the court room by her husband. Both appeared after an order of arrest had been issued by Judge Holt, to whom Dr. George McCallan, a physician appointed by him, reported that they were in good health and could undergo an ordeal on the witness stand.

On Hand Early.

Dr. and Mrs. Woodend arrived in the court-room a full half-hour ahead of time. Mrs. Woodend, who is tall, slight and rather pretty, wore a tailor-made gown of black covert cloth, with green facings and a heavy black automobile veil. She was accompanied by a young woman who declined to give her name, but who was a veritable flower garden in bloom. He wore a brown suit, brown shoes, brown necktie, brown hat, brown overcoat lined with brown silk, his eyes were brown and likewise his hair. Dr. and Mrs. Woodend looked pictures of good health and good living and it was difficult to figure out what hypothesis a doctor's certificate of physical incapacity could be issued for.

Mrs. Woodend Testifies.

Mrs. Woodend was called to the stand first. She was not in the least nervous. She said that for two years she had had two bank accounts—one in the Central Trust Company and one in the Central Exchange Bank. She has the latter account at present, she said.

“A week ago,” she said, “I had $4,700, which I placed in the Central Exchange Bank safe deposit vault, at Seventy-second street and Broadway.”

Q. Is it there now? A. It is not. I took it out last Tuesday and gave it to Mr. Warner, my lawyer, to use as bail for my husband.

Q. Did you own a house on St. Nicholas avenue? A. Yes; three apartment houses. I inherited them with my house I now live in from my mother.

Q. What is the value of the Hadden-Pode certificates that you own? A. About $20,000.

Q. Where did you get them? A. I bought one for $10,000 and Dr. Woodend gave me the other. I paid for the one I bought with money I had in the Central Trust Company.

Q. Where did you get the money? A. My husband gave it to me in return for $20,000 I loaned him when he started in business.

Q. What dividends have you had from the Hadden-Pode Company? A. I don't know.

Q. What certificates besides this have you received from your husband? A. None.

Money from Her Husband.

Q. What money? A. Oh, different amounts.

Q. Have you your old check-books? A. Oh, no. I tear them up when I finish them.

Q. Have you any vouchers? A. I'm not sure. Several months ago I tore up a lot. I may have some.

Spent $30,000 on House.

Receiver Gruber asked Mrs. Woodend how much money her husband had spent during the last year in adorning her Seventy-first street house. She said it amounted to about $30,000.

Q. Didn't he put in paintings and statuary? A. Oh, yes. But by a marble statue of a man, but I don't know what you'd call it.

Q. Did you spend any money on the house? A. Yes; I think I spent about $20,000 on the house after December. I gave the money to Dr. Woodend, and he spent it.

Q. You recently gave a mortgage on this house? A. Yes.

Q. For how much? A. Ten thousand dollars.

Q. Under what circumstances did you give this mortgage? A. Two weeks ago I came home at 6 o'clock and Mr. Warner sent for me to meet him downtown. As near as I could figure it out, my husband had to go to jail unless I signed the mortgage. I nearly had a fit and executed it at once. Mr. Warner took me to a room. Dr. Woodend was there and advised me not to sign. I'd have signed my head off if necessary to save my husband. I didn't know what I was signing.

Thinks It Is All Her Own.

Q. Didn't you feel that your husband had some interest in the house after all he had spent on it? A. I did not. I considered it was all mine.

Q. Can you give us a list of the things now in your house purchased by your husband in the last two years? A. I don't think I can. It would be impossible for me to be accurate about it.

Q. If the doctor helped you couldn't you do it? A. I might.

“Well, try,” said the receiver, “bring shells here at the next hearing.”

FARRELL IS NEW POLICE CHIEF

Lawyer Named as Deputy Commissioner to Take Charge of the Department in Borough of Brooklyn.

HAGGERTY'S SUCCESSOR IS ANTI-M'CARREN MAN.

His Appointment Due to the Influence of William A. Doyle—Official is Not New to the Department.

Commissioner McAdoo announced today that he had appointed Thomas F. Farrell to the vacant post of Deputy Police Commissioner for the Borough of Brooklyn. The name of Mr. Farrell was not on the list that Senator McCarren submitted to the Commissioner a few weeks ago.

Mr. Farrell is a lawyer, with offices at No. 84 Broadway, Williamsburg, and lives at No. 197 Towers street. He is an active Democrat of the Sixteenth Assembly District. He is not new to the police department. During the regime of former Mayor Chapman, of the borough, Mr. Farrell served as the deputy under Police Commissioner Bell, whose administration of the department was commended at the expiration of his term of office.

Mr. Farrell was formerly a McCarren man, and, having from the Eastern District, brings a powerful fighting anti-McCarren force to the aid of the police. He is the brother-in-law of the late Senator McCarren, who was killed in the battle of the leadership of Kings County.

The new Deputy Commissioner will be sworn in next Thursday and will take office on the 15th. He will be succeeded by the late Senator McCarren, who was killed in the battle of the leadership of Kings County.

Commissioner McAdoo issued the following statement concerning the appointment of Mr. Farrell this afternoon:

“I believe that Mr. Farrell will make a splendid police officer. He has had ample experience, and is recommended by some of the leading business men of the city. He is a man of high character, and is well known to the police force of Brooklyn as well as Manhattan, and as long as I am in this office I will continue to make the police conditions in Brooklyn have improved considerably of late, and no effort will be spared to make the police efficient in the borough better. The Brooklyn men made a very creditable showing in the parade. There are some excellent officers on the Brooklyn force, doing their duty well, and as long as they continue to do so they can rely upon my honest and unflinching support.”

“In order that Mr. Farrell may thoroughly understand my attitude toward police officers, I will have Mr. McAdoo, who has done good service in this respect, continue to preside at the trials for one Mr. Farrell, who is sitting with him. Possibly, I may also have Mr. Lindley sit on one or two trial days for Mr. Farrell's benefit. Mr. Farrell understands what I want, and has promised me faithful support.”
